The Middle Level FBLA meeting from last week will be TODAY during Hornet Time in the Business Room. Officers will meet today during lunch in the Business Room.

Organization and winter sports pictures will be today. A new schedule was posted this morning by the office and placed in teacher mailboxes. We begin about 5th hour with high school cheerleading.

The annual Pink Out/Battle of the Hornets game is Tuesday, January 30, at home with Fair Play. There will be a benefit spaghetti dinner, sponsored by the Elementary Student Council, beginning at 4:30 pm and running during the first part of the games. Mrs. Salmon will have the Pink Out shirt orders at school on Friday morning. There are a few extra shirts available, if you did not get one ordered. In addition, teachers may pay $5 and wear jeans on Tuesday with their Pink Out shirt and students may pay $5 to keep their cell phone with them ALL DAY!! See Mrs. Salmon in the hallway before school on Tuesday to pay your money and receive a Pink Out sticker in order to carry your phone. Phones are NOT to be used during class unless directed by a teacher, and are only to be used during passing times and at lunch. We will also have a donation Bake Sale going on during the games and Pie Auctions during the varsity half-times. Please come to support all cancer victims and survivors. This year, all proceeds will go to Mrs. Allison for her ongoing cancer battle.

The annual ACT Prep workshop at Osceola High School will be Wednesday, March 21. The cost is $20. If you wish to participate, please bring your $20 to Mrs. Shockley by February 16th.

Please sign up in the Ag Building by today if you'd like to attend FFA Camp this summer
